Women's Empowerment
Through Literacy

April 21, 2020, has been declared Women's Empowerment Day of Giving.
More than 43 million adults in the United States lack basic literacy skills, and two-thirds of those are women. Without these skills, low-literate adults struggle to gain employment, provide care for themselves and their families, or manage their finances. We dream of opening access to educational resources for adults in need to create a world where every adult can reach their full potential. ProLiteracy.org/SupportNewBeginnings
