FAQs

What types of programs does the Write Her Future Institute support?

The Institute makes grants to adult literacy and basic education programs to support English language instruction for women.

What types of instructional materials are available through the Write Her Future Institute?

Available through New Readers Press, ProLiteracy’s publishing division, applicants are able to apply for licenses for Voxy, a unique digital solution to help women English language learners.

What is Voxy?

Voxy is a digital solution that helps your learners master the English Language using a state-of-the-art platform available 24/7 across all devices. Voxy’s methodology is based on the latest research in second language acquisition and allows learners to accomplish their goals more efficiently. Click here for more information about Voxy.

Voxy licenses are purchased on a per-student basis. Licenses are good for one year and seats are reusable.

Is there a limit to the number of Voxy licenses that can be requested?

Yes, a max of 50 Voxy licenses may be requested per program.

What is the deadline to submit an application for the Write Her Future Institute?

The Institute runs on a rolling basis. Therefore, programs can apply for licenses at any time throughout the year.

How long will it take to receive a response once I’ve submitted my Write Her Future application?

Applicants will be notified electronically within two weeks of applying.

Who do I contact if I want to talk to someone to learn more about Voxy?

We encourage you to visit the New Readers Press website for information about Voxy, or contact your local sales consultant.